UZBEKISTAN

Located in the center of its Central Asian neighbors: Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Tajikistan, Afghanistan and Turkmenistan; Uzbekistan has recorded a steady increase in foreign trade volume over the years.

Main export destinations include Russia, China, Kazakhstan, Turkey, and Kyrgyzstan. Imports generally arrive from China, Russia, South Korea, Kazakhstan, and Turkey. As of 2019, Uzbekistan has trade relations with over 140 countries and has signed trade agreements with 45 countries.

In 2020, the country became an observer in the Eurasian Economic Union, and although Uzbekistan is not a member of the WTO yet, the nation is working on accession. Additionally, the UAE and Uzbekistan have agreed to expand their partnership and increase trade volume and investments in textiles, renewable energy, infrastructure, and agriculture. A large trade and logistics centre will also be constructed in the border areas of Kazakhstan and Uzbekistan.
